TODAY'S ARTIST

A graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, W. BRAMWELL SMITH has held the position of Music Director for a number of organizations, including the Humber College Concert Band, Royal Moroccan Air Force Bands, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Repertory Brass Ensemble in Washington, D.C., and at American University. Mr. Smith was founder, conductor, arranger and composer for the United States Army Herald Trumpets, as well as founder and president of the Guild of Artist Musicians, Inc. in Washington. He has been a music consultant to King Hassan II, to Yamaha Canada and, for period music, to the White House.

In addition to conducting and consultation, he has performed trumpet with the United States Marine Band, with CBC's Benny Louis Orchestra, and for a number of CBC television programmes, including General Electric with Bob Goulet. As an arranger and composer, he has done extensive radio, television, film and recording work. Mr. Smith has also created a number of educational films, and his award-winning Artistry in Brass was purchased by the U.S. Information Agency for foreign distribution.
